Founded in 2014, Golden Empire was started to give youth the opportunity to further their skills in brass, percussion and visual performance. The drum corps is an extension of the Bakersfield College Drumline program. Golden Empire earned a finalist spot in the corps' very first trip to the DCI World Championships in 2018 and in recent years has followed a California-centric tour schedule.

First performing in 1999, the Impulse Youth Arts Organization was established with the purpose to bring fun and competitive productions to audiences throughout the world. The Southern California-based drum corps was crowned the DCI Division III World Champion in 2006. Dedicated to growing young people into future leaders through the arts, the organization is committed to training performers to develop the skills needed to entertain audiences and achieve new levels of competitive excellence.

Founded in 2005, Gold exists to enrich the educational, social, ethical, philosophical, and performing arts experiences of young adults. Comprised primarily of students from across Southern California, the corps first competed outside the state in 2011 and has been an Open Class Finalist every year since 2012. Gold earned the title of Most Improved Open Class Corps in 2018 and has medaled at the Open Class World Championships for six consecutive seasons.

Founded in 1966, Seattle Cascades is the oldest continuously active drum corps from the Pacific Northwest. Community service, inclusiveness, diversity and personal responsibility serve as core tenets of the organization's educational program. The Cascades won the DCI Division III World Championship in 2000, and then doubled its size for competition the next season. In 2002, they became the first Pacific Northwest corps to become a World Class Finalist.

Founded in 2001, the Academy Brass and Percussion Ensemble was formed to introduce the youth of Arizona to the drum corps experience. In 2004, the group was approved as a DCI sanctioned unit, changed its name to the Academy Drum and Bugle Corps, and began competing for the first time. In the corps' first trip to the DCI World Championships in 2006, it won the gold medal in Division II competition. 2016 marked the corps' first year as a World Class DCI World Championship finalist.

Founded in 1972, the Bluecoats organization was founded as a small, community-focused music education program that brought the drum corps experience to the young people of Canton, Ohio. Winning DCI World Championship titles in 2016 and 2024, the corps has earned a medal in nine of the last 10 competitive seasons. While pushing the boundaries of artistic exploration and creative excellence, the Bluecoats have made their performance of bend-ing productions a hallmark.
